CRIMINAL PROCEDURE RULE CHANGE

SUPREME COURT ORDER

In 1986, the Indian Civil rights Act (ICRA) was amended to allow for an increase in criminal penalties. Although some of the Menominee Tribe's laws have been changed to reflect the increase in penalties, the Courts rules have not been corrected.

Pursuant to the Court's rulemaking authority as contained in Article V, Section 6 of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin, the Menominee Supreme Court adopts the following amendment to the Menominee Tribal Court Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 25 (a) (1) and (2) effective thirty (30) days after posting. This amendment will bring the rules current with adopted tribal law.

Menominee Tribal Court Rules of Criminal Procedure

Rule 25 – SENTENCING

- (a) Any person who has been convicted in the Tribal Court of a criminal offense may be sentenced to one or a combination of the following penalties:
- (1) Imprisonment for a period not to exceed the maximum permitted by the specific code provision defining the offense, which in no case shall be greater than one (1) year.
 - (2) A money fine in an amount not to exceed the maximum permitted by the specific code provision defining the offense, which in no case shall be greater than five-thousand dollars ($5,000).

Dated this 30th day of July 2019.
