TRIBAL COURT COMPUTER FILES POLICY

SUPREME COURT ORDER

Pursuant to Section 7 as written in Article V of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin, the Menominee Supreme Court hereby formally adopts the attached policy on Tribal Court Computer Files.

This ORDER shall remain in force until further amended or order of the Court.

Dated this 5 day of April 2017.

Stephan M. Grochowski, Chief Justice

Robert M. Kittecon, Associate Supreme Court Justice

Wendell J. Kenote, Associate Supreme Court Justice

POLICY ON TRIBAL COURT COMPUTER FILES

Pursuant to Section 3(c) of Bylaw II of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin, whenever any court personnel (including any judge or justice) is no longer employed at the Tribal Court, upon notice from the Court, the Information Technology Department (IT), shall download all computer files associated with that former employee and burn the information to a CD (computer disc). None of these CDs shall be copied or reviewed by persons other than the Judiciary. These CDs shall then be given to the current Chief Justice or his/her designee.

Failure to follow the above practice shall subject the appropriate person and/or department director to an order to show cause wherein the offending person(s) shall show proof why s/he/they should not be held in contempt of court.
